Karen, I miss you so very much ! It has taken me, the talker this long to share my tribute to you. Believe it or not. I'm at a loss for words. I appreciate the opportunity to share memories of you with everyone. But, I much rather have you back instead. The inside jokes, your smile, courage and wisdom , it all will be missed. I can't sleep, laying in bed thinking about in a couple of hours I will be surrounded by others who love and miss you just as much. I want to THANK your family for sharing you with everyone. Just a kind heart, sweet, funny and loving person. The love you shared for not only people but animals too was amazing . TAA DAA until we meet again. Love, H-O-P-E

I did not know Karen long, I started working with her in August of last year; but the short time we worked together I feel in love with her. She had a smile that could brighten the day no matter how down you were, and she always had a kind word and encouraging to help make it easier to start a new job. I will miss her and Keithan laughing, Thanks for the short time together; I know she is with God always.

I haven't known Karen very long - we always passed when I was leaving and she was coming in to work at PharMerica. But what I'll never forget is how she came in happy even on her bad days. She always had a kind word and a smile for everyone. She was genuine and went out of her way to help and guide you when you needed it. She was a gentle and beautiful soul and I'm sure she's resting peacefully eating her spicy fritos and enjoying a much deserved rest.

I remember when I was her secret Santa and she really LOVED her CHILI LIME FRITOS! I stuffed them in her drawers at work and she was a HAPPY LADY! You fought the good fight! Now you can enjoy watching over all the people that you touched and loved. Such a BEAUTIFUL SOUL! You will be missed my friend.

My prayers go out to the family. I have known Karen for 11 years, and I have never met a more courageous woman. Karen had such strength-I told her that about a year ago-she was such a fighter and kept coming to work- she was an inspiration to so many. Karen always had a story about her pets and her family that she loved so much. I will miss you Karen! Lyssa Hendrix

We worked together back at PharMaster we had birthdays a day apart. When she turned 50 I turned 25. I went to work earlier that morning and decorated her whole station in black. Mine was the next day and I came to work with a huge grim reaper balloon along with some over the hill balloons on my desk from Karen. I struggled with those dang balloons all the way home. She would call me a young whippersnapper. That was our thing. Then yall moved to Midlothian and we would bump into to each other at Walmart. I will always remember her beautiful smile and always making us smile. I'm glad she's no longer suffering but she put up a good fight.
