Charles Edward Hill Jr.

NOV 16, 1973 - OCT 29, 2018

Charles Edward Hill Jr., (lovingly known as Julio), 44, of Mesquite, Texas, passed away on October 29, 2018.

Charles was born in Renova, Mississippi on November 16, 1973 to Mary-Ann and Charles Hill Sr. He graduated from Cleveland High School and continued on to attend MS Delta Community College. He extended his education to pursue a career in Quality Assurance.

Charles was married to Tiffany on May 11, 2013; they were married 5 years. And together one daughter, Sydney, was born.

Charles worked as a Quality Inspector for UTC Aerospace Systems. He enjoyed football and loved to travel. Charles would unwind by riding motorcycles or by visiting with family and friends. Charles was known to be an excellent cook. However, he was best known for his grilling expertise.

Charles is survived by his wife Tiffany, daughter Sydney, parents Mary-Ann and Charles, nieces and nephews, and countless family and friends.

Dam! I'm 8 years too late!.. just learn that Julio passed way.. That was my teammate at MS. delta and haven't seen him since 1995.. It even saddened me even more to learn that we both lived in the Dallas area and didn't even know...

My best friend. Known you long as I've known life. So glad I talked to you and we shared our love and friendship as we always did on the phone. Going to be hard to not hear "What's up fella" "What's going on suspect". I have no one to call and talk about grilling now. That purple and gold bag not gone taste the same again.

Brother I truly I'll miss you. That call saying momma cooked ham. Better go on and get it before Fay Fay beat u there. Those roses to Shaw. You always telling me to keep pushing and everything gone work out. Man I thank you for being the best friend a man could have. Heaven has truly gained an angle. If Jesus ever needed a body guard he has one now. Love you. Till I see u again!!
