Frankie Laverne Brown

SEP 25, 1956 - NOV 11, 2018

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

We never met in person Ms Laverne but we shall greet each other face to face in Heaven, when I too make my journey home. I rejoice in the Lord for you are now free of pain and suffering. 1 Peter 5:10 10 And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

I miss you so much LaVerne. Was hoping you would get better and come back home to BV. Someone dropped the ball. Not sure who to blame. You know I would have been there when you were asking for me. Didn't get the message till you were already gone. Condolences to family. LaVerne was my best friend and bingo buddy. She's got her wings and she feels no more pain. See you again my friend. Meet me at the Pearly Gate. You have your Peace In The Valley as sung by Elvis Presley

MY CANDLE IN THE NIGHT Dedicated to Fankie Laverne Brown You were My Candle in the Night, lighting up my darkest years. A light that shined bright and drew back my veil of tears. Friendship, was the wick that made it burn and the strength of caring to make it glow. A sweet scented column molded of faith, comfort and understanding. Melting with time to reveal the dear heart of a true friend. My candle now shines brighter than a golden star above. Filling the Heavens, with it's gentle soul and purest love. My Candle in the Night, held in a crystal base of kindness from the start. A luminous flare that brought joy and reason to my heart. A mere cylinder of wax who brought purpose to my lonely soul. Warming the coldness of night that was once in my life untold. As My Candle in the Night, passes to the heavens with her radiant light. She proclaims to the world that her pain and suffering is no longer her plight. There in Heaven My Candle in the Night shall burn brightly forever. And, here on earth My Candle in the Night will be forgotten. Never. _____ This was written by a good friend of mine: Marie Hufford for Laverne
