I remember going to the country and you had named the cows after your children. You always said things to make us laugh.

I remember every time I used to come over, you would be in your room, watching the weather or the news. We would sit and talk about the weather and what going on in the news.

Though I never got to meet you physically, I am blessed and privileged to have known you through Rita (your daughter). Jesus said in the Holy Bible that, "...by their fruits, ye shall know them". The spiritual decency, discipline, and love manifested in your Rita shows how closely knitted the family is. May the Lord comfort the family in this moment, and always. May the soul of Papa rest in the perfect peace of Jesus Christ. Amen!James & Bose
