Marla McGill

FEB 9, 1945 - DEC 23, 2019

A Time for Everything

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Danny and Shelby, We are so sorry for your loss. Marla was a sweet lady that always made us feel welcome and like family. On one occasion, I remember visiting Pete and Marla in Oklahoma when a scorpion walked across the floor. She put us at ease as if it were nothing and continued making a family dinner. Although it has been too long between visits, I'm glad we got to see her the past couple years at Deanna's and Shawn's graduations. May you find comfort in your memories. Love, Sue and Jeff Swain

I will loved visiting in the summers and Marla spoiled me as I was one her own grandkids. Taking me shopping for school clothes and will never forget my first chicken fried steak her and Pete took me. I was very picky eater but so glad they made me try it. That may of been the beginning of me trying new things. Thank you Marla for the the memories and love you shared with me.
