I work at Belmont senior Living home with Jessika she was a caregiver and I work in the Dining and bistro and she was always joking and making you smile if you had a bad day I remember she would always tell me to keep that smile on face because I would always smile and never let know one change that and that will always stick with me she was so strong and out spoken it's sad I never made it to her baby shower but one day she brought the baby to the job we were so excited so because like mom mann I'm going to miss your smile and hear you cracked up to everything you had us rolling 😂😂🙏🙏🙏🙏prayers for your family peace and strength 💜💜😭
