Carlos M. Marrero

APR 8, 1932 - MAR 6, 2020

Every day phenomenal people and heroes are born. Carlos Manuel Marrero was that to many people but specialty to his family and friends. He loved life and all us. He lived a life a honor and paved the way for his children to become living memory of his greatness. He now joins his son Jose Ismael in heaven but leaves his wife Alba Luz and his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren to continue his legacy, to live a life of greatness.

Alba Marrero posted:

He loved baseball and showed me to love it as much. Before he moved to Texas every time he visited me we would go and watch the Rangers. On his 80th birthday, thank ti my great friend Richard Marquez I was able to take him to his first opening day. His memories were already starting to be robbed by mis dementia but that day will live for ever in my heart.
