Tracy was such a good friend to me in elementary and throughout our school years. Always kind. I will never forget in 6th grade when there was this huge dragon fly in her room we were so freaked out and started swatting it with books I just happen to be the one that flipped over bed and broke my arm. I loved going to her house during the cabbage patch craze because her mom had a lot of dolls for sale. Such great memories I will forever cherish. Prayers to the family and friends Heaven surely gained a precious Angel. Prayers for her beautiful family.

I had just moved back to Texas with my 3 year old daughter and Bobby and Tracy lived across the street from me. The first time that I met Tracy, little Brook was probably two and running across the yard in her diaper. Tracy and I became friends and she did have a beautiful smile. I am saddened to hear that she left us at such a young age. Ryland was one of the kindest children that I have ever known and I have fond memories of Brook and Ryland hanging out over here with my daughter. Tracy was a great mother and I regret that we lost touch. Rest In Peace Tracy.

Tracy Yeager is my beautiful cousin. Back in the day she was like a little sister to me and a big sister to my daughter. Our parents got together almost every other weekend. We had some of the best times just hanging out and playing games. In this picture is Tracy, Bubba and Britanie. I will always remember Tracy this way. See you in heaven dear cousin.
