Deborah Ann Nevarez

DEC 22, 1961 - JUN 4, 2020

“In honor of Deborah Ann Nevarez: December 22, 1961 - June 4, 2020

Deborah is incredibly unique yet so relatable. She is fiery but gentle. Opinionated but open-minded. Two sides of a coin that make one extraordinary spirit.

Long before her passing, she earned her wings. Finally, she can don those wings, becoming part of God's kingdom where she will join her daughter, Andrea, and her late son, Christopher.

As Deborah moves on, she leaves behind her two sons, husband, grandson, and many others whom she loves. Though she is no longer with us, she will continue to be present in each of our lives.

Those who know Deborah would know how much she loves sharing stories. Please join us in remembering Deborah by sharing a memory of her or sending condolences.”

Ms. Debbie, My beautiful lady (inside and out) It's hard for me not to be selfish and wish you were here. I'm thankful for having you in my life. I'm thankful I got to feel so much love from you, that you truly only feel from a loving mother. Oh how I will miss hearing your sweet voice calling me "mija" and saying "love you". I will remember all the great advice you gave me and all the beautiful stories you told me of Chris. I thank God he has welcomed you in heaven, where Chris was waiting for you. Thank you for everything, thank you for accepting me into your family when I was just a kid, thank you for being kind, thank you for your conversations, thank you for being there for me, thank you for putting me before your own needs, thank you for loving my son, I will always talk to him about all the love you showed him in such short time. Lastly thank you for visiting me in my dreams today. I was upset we didn't get to say goodbye one last time.. but in my dream you did just that and you looked so beautiful and happy. I will always have you in my heart. I hope you know how much you will be missed. I love you ❤️ -Belinda Moreno

Debby missing you so much! Thinking back at that little 3 year old girl who would sing "These Boots Are made for Walking" taking you to daycare and hearing you talk baby talk! You were so cute and you could really defend yourself always!! Remembering taking you to family parties and spending the weekend with us. You were my companion watching the soaps and we would eat grilled cheese sandwiches and cream of mushroom soup! You love holidays and decorating for them. We shared secrets and loved talking about silly things. Shared recipies and cleaning tips, we are all cleaning OCD. Will miss our early morning calls 😭. I know you are finally free of pain and with Chris, baby Andrea, you sister Corina, my mom who loved you dearly and your dad! You have gone ahead to prepare a place for us, and soon we will meet again!! So rest in peace my sweet Debby, you will be in my heart forever!

Mom, I miss you deeply. It hurts so much that you're not here with me anymore. Selfishly, I wanted you to be here forever. I wanted to see you grow old, spend time with your grandson and future grand babies, eventually old enough that I could take you in and care for you the way you cared for me... But you suffered in pain for too long. Realizing this brings me relief knowing that you are no longer hurting. You fought so hard. I am incredibly proud of you. You will always surround me in every way. I will talk to you everyday the way you talked to Chris everyday. I can't wait to see you again and hold you in my arms. I love you mom, always & forever, here & in heaven. ❤️-Your baby, Matthew.

Mrs. Debbie you will truly be missed. I just spoke with you not too long ago and I'm at a lost for words to see that you're no longer here with us. I know you are at peace now and no longer have to suffer. I will forever remember your beautiful smile and contagious laugh. Thank you for always being there, listening and giving sound advice. My condolences to the family, I will keep you all lifted in prayer 🙏. Much love to you and RIH Mrs. Debbie!!! ❤️
