Hey uncle Justin, its hope, I'm 13 now, my birthday was 4 months ago. I really miss you. I wish you were here rn. I need you. It's hard. I know I'm a teenager and I'm not supposed to be stressed or anything. But I am. I'm trying to make my parents proud. I remember when I go to go to your house when I was lil, and this one time we watched a movie, and another time was when me and autumn made smores in the microwave at your house. That was the first time I knew that you could make smores in a microwave. I still have the gift you got me for Christmas. Even if it barely fits. I'm keeping it no matter what. That was the last gift I got from you. I love you so much uncle justin.

I knew Justin from Kroger for many years. As a co-manager, grocery merchandiser and then as a store manager. He was that one of a kind guy who loved his families....both home and work ones. He talked about his kids accomplishments all the time and was the ideal portrait of a proud Dad. His presence at our store will be missed for a long time to come.

Justin is my first cousin. My heart is broken for my Aunt Donna and my Uncle Ronnie and the rest of their family. I haven't seen Justin in a long time. As soon as I heard the news, all I could think about was all the time I used to babysit Shawna and Justin. Him in his little cowboy boots and jeans and hat! Little stinker! So cute! He was taken way too soon. From the memories I have read, he was well respected in his community. I could tell by all of his Facebook posts that he was so happy and proud of his family. He did well in his time here on earth. Justin, I love you, my little cowboy💙

Justin, you understood what I needed after finding out I was pregnant with my son and had already suffered loss previously. You watched out for me in work environment that doesn't really care for light duty. You saved my sons life. You and Cheryl were there for his first Halloween and you always called to check up. You were always a phone call away and you really were like a father figure to me. You will be greatly missed, thank you for your friendship and your guidance.

Wow ,how can you say goodbye to your son . I was there when you were born and the Doctor put you in my hands .I'll always remember when you were little you always said someday Dad I'll be big enough to hit you on top of my head.You definently got that tall . One of your hopes when you were a young boy ,you wanted to be an Emergency Room Doctor, or Brain Surgeon . Well you didnt do either one ,but you worked your way from a nighttime stocker at Kroger to be overall General Manager of one of Krogers largest stores. Justin you did it all .You have a beautiful family 4 fine children 2 has already graduate from highschool 2 more to go . You love your family more than Ive ever seen a man do before and you were fully dedicated to your family . I couldn't have asked for a better son . Son I'll see you when I get to Heaven too . Tell your Grandpa Clint hi your Grandma Midge hi and my Dad hi . Till we meet again Justin I will always remember your first ride in a semi truck with me . We were coming to an overpass and you jumped to the floorboard ducking ,thinking we were going to hit it .That was an awesome 3 weeks we spent traveling America by semitruck . Loving memories your Dad Ron.

Ron, I didn't know Justin really really well but well enough to know that he was a fabulous husband and father. Cheryl is one of our girl scout leaders and all 3 girls in the troop. He was a very supportive dad who did things with his children as often As he could, from garage sales to cookie booths to camping. And so attentive to Cheryl, You raised a fine man as a son, My deepest sympathizes go out to you and your family, Justin will definitely be missed

Judy Lynn Carlisle lit a candle in honor of Justin.

The best way for me to describe Justin is he was a "family man" he loved his wife and children so very much....Justin was always posting pictures of doing things with Aurora , Rain, Winter and Autumn...and his beautiful wife Cheryl, and their " date nights" Justin was always happy, he always called his Dad on Father's Day, and his Dad always told him, I'm so proud of you Son, I love you... his employees loved him, Justin would have appreciation cookout for them..and you could tell by the looks on their faces that they truly admired him...Justin also loved his Sister's his growing up years with Shawna, they were so close, and his younger Sister Gloria, he was always there for her when she needed him. Seeing pictures of Justin playing with Gloria's children was always special...Justin will be missed by everyone... He was truly a special person...i love you Justin, and I miss you already, this is not goodbye, because I know we will see you again someday in Heaven..

Justin you were always there for me when I needed help and were so very good to me when I went through my loss. You will always be remembered. Will always hold special the times you volunteered to be Santa for my neighborhood and all the special times that you and Cheryl would be the last to close down the Marshall Christmas get together. May god bless your family and give them strength. I promise you I am here for Cheryl and the kids. RiP my beloved friend and colleague. Bobbie
