Frank L. Ramirez Jr.

MAY 27, 1946 - JUL 25, 2020

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "come to me."

You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best

And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

Dad, you were always there for me. You always gave me strength when things got hard for me and gave me the best advice. I learned everything from you. You were the best dad anyone could ever hope for. I love you and I will carry you in my heart forever.

I love you Daddy! Always and forever! Thank you for always being the best Dad you could be to me. I'm going to miss you like crazy man! Our talks, our laughs, you laughing at the kids fight, or fall, or run. I hope you enjoyed them, I know they enjoyed you. Your home now, no more pain. Watch over us please. As we can't go through life without you by our side. I gained a guardian angel, and I'm so damn proud it's you. You the strongest God has. I love you Daddy. I told you every night before bed, I made sure of it. Always and forever Daddy.

Uncle Frank the thing I remember the most is how you treated kids. Growing up as a little kid it was always fun to go visit you and stay overnight and play with my cousins Bobby and Melissa. You were always funny and talked to us kids like we were adults. Death touches all of us and I know how much it hurts. Prayers for you and all my family during this sad time.
