Randy posted:

Alberto was a man of integrity, principles, and valued his friends, family, and co-workers. He was a dedicated, talented, perfectionist, in terms of his determination to perform at the highest level of his abilities. I believe those same principles applied to his everyday life. He always greeted people with a great smile. He will be missed but heaven rejoices! Condolences to all his family and friends.

Alberto was a very hard worker and was dedicated to not only his family but to his job. He has been a part of the Phoenix Exchange team since 2001 and words can not describe the loss we feel. Our hearts go out to his sons, daughter, and grandchildren, and the rest of the family. We pray peace over the family and our condolences. God Bless you Alberto Montoya Sr.
