Mr. Jesse O. Browning

OCT 26, 1949 - OCT 18, 2020

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Still in disbelief, as we just learned of this news today. Can't say how instrumental and influential Mr. Browning is and was. We're truly jolted that we won't meet our dear friend again, on this side. Such an insightful, thoughtful man. Our sincerest condolences and prayers, to the family and friends of this great man. We mourn with you and for you. We share the grief of a life gone, in God's appointed time. He was full of life and always had a smile. Lean on the everlasting arm of the Lord, rest in his bosom. Cast all your cares on him, for he cares for you. He is missed and will be cherished in our hearts, forever. May his peace be with you, until we meet again. My husband and I met Jesse when we first moved to Texas and looking to buy a home. Mr Jesse took the time to design our forever home, and shared "I am going to have it designed the way I would design my own home!" He was an awesome man and we loved him through our home building process, and thereafter. Rest now Mr. Jesse, God has you in his arms, and we see a part of you in our home. Charles and Natasha Dean

Mr. Jesse, my "HOUSE" I did not want to say anything, I didn't know what to say. So I'll do what I did with you which is what we did best. I'll keep it real, I've had the up & down pleasure of working with you for years. I learned a lot from you and I can say you learned a some stuff from me too about (hair weave, wigs, makeup, etc) lol. Man some days we had a lot of fun at work and put on a show for the buyers. And we argued all the time, then had to decide what was for lunch. I remember when I first met you, I gave my honest opinion of your character then I have the you nickname "HOUSE ". Not because you sold house's but because you reminded me of the TV character Dr.House. Anyhow man I'm going to miss your cocky , confidence and sophisticated swag. "House" I truly miss you. S.H.

Oh My Dear Uncle Neil, There aren't enough words to express the feeling upon hearing that you had gone to be with God and it still feels like a dream. For a very long time I had a difficult time dealing with the loss of loved ones. When I decided to lean on and completely trust in the Lord and know that his will had been done I knew I was going to be alright. I knew that you had given your life to God and that was the other thing that assured me that you were in the hands of the Lord and I know your safe. What I'm going to miss most is that really firm hug I got every time I saw you and the encouragement you gave. I'm going to miss the bright smile and the humor you graced us all with. I'm going to miss checking out those duds you wear and that SWAG you had. LoL and I so admired the distinguished man you were. Neil I am going to miss you a great deal but until we meet again Rest Easy my dear Uncle. I love you.

A Testament of LifeBehold brothers and sisters this is the day that the Lord has made let us rejoice and be glad in it. Behold brother and sisters this is the day that the Lord has vowed, let us rejoice and be glad in it. Let us celebrate this day of the God of Life and Death and be glad in it.Let us celebrate his mercy and his grace and be glad in it. The God that gives sight to the sightless rest to the restless and faith to the faithless. The God that delivers us from evil and lay our enemies at our feet.Behold him that moves upon the waters and sets us upon dry land, the one who gives breath and celebrates the days of our lives. Let us behold the God of alpha and omega the only one who has power over both. As we mourn this life, we celebrate and rejoice in the next one.Let us give a testament to his promise, that who so ever believes upon the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit shall not perish but have life everlasting. So I say behold brothers and sisters this is the day that the lord has made let us rejoice and be glad in it.Condolences to the Perkins Johnson and Browning families you are all in our prayers.Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted Matthew 5:4.To brother Jesse your sudden departure was a shock to us all because you were so full of life and a important member of the family. But we hold on to Gods promise because we know that you were one of his faithful. The memories we have of a life well lived will keep and sustain us in the days months and years ahead. To the Antioch church family all friends and colleagues the family wish to thank you for all your prayers and support.

When I first heard the news of Jesse's passing, my heart broke. I could not believe I lost one of my best friends. I'll never forget the first time I made a sales call on Jesse at First Texas Homes many years ago. When we met, It was like we were long lost friends, and we quickly became the best of friends. He was one of the sharpest dressers and loved his hats and shoes. I would always compliment him on his beautiful wrist watches, as we both have a passion for fine time pieces. I quickly found out he loved Makers Mark and would bring him gifts from time to time and say "Its Christmas in July" Jesse, and he would just laugh. I'll never forget the time I made a sales call on a Wednesday to see Jesse, and I took him a gift of Makers Mark. He told me I was a sight for sore eyes, as he was having an awful day. He looked at me and said "Bob, lets go out back and have a sip and I need a smoke". We told stories and laughed until we would cry. I bet we shot the breeze for 45 minutes. Jesse was one of a kind, and he was a class act, conservative, funny, loved animals as I do, great businessman, one of the best new home sales persons I've ever had the pleasure of working with, loved nice cars, and most of all, he loved life, his family and his beloved dog. You are in a better place my friend and you will be forever missed, and I will think of you often. God has you now my friend... Rest in Peace my brotherBob Real
