To: Clauzell, Margie, Arlene, Willie, Gloria and Bobby; as well as to all of Ed's family members with whom I was not well acquainted.As I offer my sincerest Condolences with respect to the passing of "our" loved one... Mr. Ed Mitchell; it is my prayer that GOD will shed his Grace to comfort and keep all of us.Ed and I became acquainted in the early 80's and throughout the expansion of time, I quickly learned that to truly know Ed was to simply love and respect him for who he was; even if it were nothing more than tinkering around with an automobile engine or sitting on his porch in the evening shade having a conversation about life's experiences, every opportunity to be in his presence from thence forth were definitely a pleasure; his physical presence will be missed yet the memories we've shared will continue to live on."Big J"

Ms. Lorraine Mitchell if you any questions concerns or comments please direct them to the appropriate person ie his "outside children " who knew nothing of you.. it was courtesy that we mentioned you at all... be blessed.. You are a Mitchell only in name, but we love you anyway.. Be blessed.. Happy New Year!
