I only had the opportunity to meet Robert on a couple of occasions. However, the thing I will remember most is how he helped us and numerous people during the winter storm. We only knew Robert as an HVAC guy, but Jeremy Crawford let us know that he was a journeyman plumber, too. Long story short, he drove from his home in Burleson to repair busted pipes all over DFW for us and in the process helped a lot of people. I think of Robert a genuinely good man. We don't have enough of those today. I will miss him.

Dad was always a teacher. As a young kid he taught us boys to stand up for each other and love one another. If we didnt, dad wouldnt scream at us, but instead he'd simply tell us to put our nose on the wall till he told us so. He always had ideas to teach us his way about things. Dad from day one was set out to teach us kids and give us the best life i could ever ask for. Dad treated my mom like a queen, no matter how far out my mom wanted something whether it be pineapple juice at 12am in the morning or a piece of china furniture 3 hours away in Paris Tx, my daddy was on it. Dad was out to make sure all of us were happy and he did on a daily basis. Words cannot explain the amount of hurt the Bell family is going through. Dad we miss you so much and your little son will know everything you taught us just the way you want him to learn. For the rest of my life ill do everything for you dad, ill carry out your clever ways of showing us right from wrong. Knowing you watching us will keep my fire lit to keep going for my little brother and my mom. Dad im gonna make you proud of all of us, i love you so much daddy

I have been told that "friends become our chosen family" Robert is that to all of us here at Insco. He is way more than a co-worker, he had our backs, he was here to listen, he was here to teach, which he did a lot here. It seems there was not much he didn't know about. Besides working hard he loved nothing more than talking about and spending time with his family. It saddens me that he was taken away so early, but it gives me strength to know that he is up there watching over us all. You will be missed. Love Ya Brother

I had the pleasure of working with Robert for 4 years. He loved his customers and his coworkers with great passion. He was always willing to help in any way he could and always had a smile on his face. His number one priority was always been his family. He spoke with great pride about all of his children and man did his eyes light when he spoke about Louise. He was not only a coworker, but a cherished friend. We will miss you Robert!
