Jasmine Simone Caban

OCT 20, 1990 - MAY 9, 2021

Jasmine Simone Caban was born in Long Beach California on October 20, 1990.

Jasmine was an adventuress but she understood street life curfew. She knew when to rollerblade home where she would play her PS1 until she fell asleep.

Jasmine was a collector, whether it was cards, stones, dvds, shoes, records you name it! Her most prized collection was the people she surrounded herself with.

Carrying breath across various mediums blending light and blending pallets. Jasmine was an artist. Her canvas had no bounds.

Adding lyric to word poetry was her given language and music was the soundtrack to her life.

To be in her midst is to understand the atmosphere of a creator.

Jasmine was the life of the party and she was not afraid to live life on her own terms.

Jasmine is survived by:

Parents; Lisa & Faamanu

Siblings; Celina & Keiano

Fiancé, Gabrielle

Pops; Baron

Siblings; Brandie, Bianca, Santana, and Zoe

It pains me everyday to know that she is gone. I know that I'll always mourn what could have been if she were still alive. Just when I was starting to know her, she was taken from me. That pain will always remain in me until the day I die. There are so many things that I can't say or do now that she's gone.

I can't believe your really gone 😞 I have no words. I'm completely speechless and breathless. I never got the opportunity to mend things with us and get my sister back. I really thought I had time. Never in a hundred million years would I have thought you would be gone so soon. And now I'll never get that chance. I never stopped loving you Jas and I never will. I pray in your heart you always knew that.

The imprints you have left on every soul you have touched has made you immortal. Your spirit is beyond measure. You will be remembered, only missed in the physical. Your words of wisdom ring daily in my mental. The welcoming spirit smiles unabound. You've always been an angel, even more so since your feet have left the ground.

I met Jasmine when we both worked at AutoNation and she immediately became one of my favorite people. We had so many fun times working together there and then at Microsoft together. She was one of the funniest people I knew and I'm so glad to have been able to laugh with her. She was such an amazing friend, she was there for me at my wedding, she was there for me at my baby shower, and She will be greatly missed. My prayers to the family and may she Rest In Peace.

My Jazzy Baby, You will forever be in my heart. I thank God for choosing me as your mother. I will never understand why he called you home so soon, but I will cherish the memories, love, tears, laughter and amazing times that we shared. Your birth gave my life purpose and you gifted me with my new name even before you could speak. Mommy "When you are a mother, you are never really alone in your thoughts. Seeing as I may not be able to see my sister buried, I feel it appropriate to share the fondest things I loved about her. Jasmine, while we had barely began to regain our bond, she made it clear from the jump that she wanted to be in my life and support me as the big sister I always wanted. I have always wanted that and despite everything, she was ready to be a rock for me. I hate that I did not and now will never be able to get that. However, I will always cherish the light that was my sister and I hope that one day I can grow to be as confident and wonderful as she was. I love you...fly high Jasmine.
