Miss Taelear Denai Foster

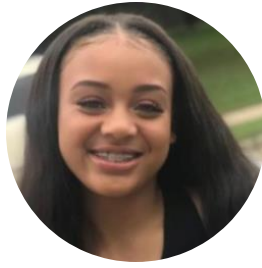

MAY 31, 2001 - JUL 3, 2021

Taelear Foster was born to R.Nachael Foster and Carlos Foster alongside her twin, Thailer, on May 31, 2001, and returned to God on July 3, 2021.

Taelear was full of life and while she may have appeared quite to others, Taelear had an active mind and imagination. She was a creative woman who had an artistic touch and always supported the dreams of others. She played basketball and volleyball and giggled while goofing around. She had plans to return to UTA in the fall.

Taelear was an amazing sister and friend.

She will survive in the memories of her parents, Carlos Foster and R.Nachael Foster; siblings, Cameron Foster, Exzinia Scott, Tamera Mathews, Thailer Foster, and Taaja Foster, her grandparents Olivia and Bill Lanfair, Harmon Stockdale as well as Cleodis Howell, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and all who love her.

Romans 8:18

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

The fact that this is reality really hurts. I hoped for the longest that I was in a dream, or maybe that you and Thailer were playing a joke. I wish this was a joke. It hurts. Every time I'm in a good mood, I think of you, and it makes me sad. You didn't deserve what you went through, but you will no longer feel the pain of this wicked world. I thank God that you're at peace, but what about your family? I wish I could take the pain away from everybody. I pray for the sanity of your parents, family, and close friends because I know they need it. I really wish things didn't have to be this way. I love you and I will continue to love you even when the Earth is no longer spinning. Protect your family with your energy... Let them know that you are okay. I will continue to do what I do best and PRAY PRAY PRAY.. I want your loved ones to know that this is not the end, only a new beginning. I love you so much beautiful, see you later.

Both of yall were hands down the funniest, realest, and down to earth twins I've ever met! Taelear was the girl that every boy had a crush on! They loved those braids and her eyes lol. To make it short I miss you guys so much and speak nothing but blessings and abundance your way. Just remember that we are all spiritual beings living a human experience so Taelear may be gone physically but her spirit is infinite and more present now more than ever 🙏❤️ -Braelyn B. I dreaded going to Harmony cuz I though it was lame , but I didn't enjoy it until 6th and 7th grade when I met the Twins with these matching big ole braids. It feels like yesterday me you and Thai was playing for harmony basketball team for coach halfman and fading Six flags with crystal and Richard every chance we could. You and Thai were fastest ones on the court no cap!! You was so smart, shy and quiet but when school was out you know we was outside for hours getting into stuff and just being kids cuz our parents worked so dang late . Mann I remember one time we had so much time on our hands we hit our first lick together and took candy from Mr.Cardwells science class 😂 and got Detention. I loved begging my mom to take me 30min to y'all's house cuz you know we stayed outside at the park and always got into something. We used to always fade faiths house cuz that was the swim spot fasho!! And I remember the last conversation we had ... I'll forever cherish the wonderful soul and amazing friend you were to me and everyone around us. #LLTae I love youuuu !!!!

I met Taelear and Thailer in middle school when they used to where those big box braids (dookie braids) lol. I remember they used to tell me that they do their own hair, and that inspired me to do my own hair. I came up to school one time with some box braids I had attempted (they were really ugly) and Taelear didn't even fire me up, she just told me to keep practicing... Now 7 years later I've perfected my craft. I'm so happy to have met Taelear and be able to share the memories that we do have. I pray that your family and close friends feel you watching over them as they continue on with their life. I pray for the comfort of your family and loved ones.. God gives his toughest battles to his strongest soldiers, and you all WILL get through this tough time. The pain you are feeling now does not compare to the joy you will feel later. I love you all and I pray for your strength.

Taelear, on my bday, Aug. 22, 2019, I wasn't having the best day.. Your twin, Thailer, invited me over to her new apartment & gathered some close friends & we had so much fun. Both of you brightened my day & night & gave me one of the most beautiful birthday memories I'll ever have & forever cherish. Even though it was so simple, that's what made it stand out even more. I didn't need to be dressed up, we didn't need gifts or presents, I didn't need the biggest celebration, I got to spend the day with two of the most beautiful twins I've ever met, who were both so amazing & genuine. That's rare energy to come across. That was my first time meeting you & unfortunately my last time ever seeing you. I wish I got to get a picture or video with you. I wish I got to tell you how pretty you were that day & I wish I got to thank you for bringing light to me when I was having a not so bright day. I'll forever hold that memory of you in my heart, because the light that you were able to bring into a room was so bright & unforgettable. You left an impression on my spirit. I wish I got to tell you how beautiful your presence felt. I pray you receive this message & it warms your soul, the way you warmed up mine on my birthday. You were shy & had a sweet personality. You were laughing the whole time & had the biggest & brightest smile on your face. Even though I never got the chance to be close to you, that doesn't matter, because the impression you left, was one I'll never forget. I kept looking at you, cause even though you weren't the loudest in the room, you stood out. You were very pretty & beautiful. I'm grateful to have got to meet you. Rest In Peace & Smile for Eternity in Heaven. God bless you & your family. Much LOVE, - Paris Love. ❤️
