Sister Edith Lynn Diggins Wright

AUG 5, 1958 - SEP 13, 2021

Edith Lynn Diggins was born August 5, 1958 to Rosie Lee Diggins and Richard Shelton. She was a warm loving heart of a person. She had a giant person personality, and when she entered a room, you knew that Leo the Lion was there because she let her roar be heard. Edith was the fourth of Rosie Lee's seven children, and she let you know she was not lost in the crowd.

Edith's greatest passion was to cook with people enjoying what she prepared.

She loved to make friends, talk, her church, to dance, and believe it or not to work.

However, most of all she loved her boys. Edith lived in Monroe, Louisiana but made Fort Worth, Texas her home at the early age of 18. She wanted to give her boys Montrell, DeCory, and later Elliott (who earned the nickname of Trouble) a better place to call home.

She was baptized at an early age in Monroe, La in the Antioch Baptist Church.

She later moved her membership to the New Philadelphia Baptist Church under the leadership of Bishop Ontario Jones.

Edith worked for Randy Radio Companies, Lockheed Martin, Fort Worth and Crowley ISD, and owned a house cleaning service.

Edith was preceded in death by her mother Rosie Lee Hicks, brother Anthony Hicks, sisters Leola Diggins, and Vicki Brown Shelton. She leaves to cherish two families with wonderful memories of her, 3 sons - Montrell (Tiffany) Diggins, DeCory Diggins, and Elliott (Nijean) Diggins. 6 grandsons - Montrell Jr., Micah, Adolphus, Robert, DeCory Jr., and Lea'Aundre. 3 grand-daughters - Aryel, Kaziyah, and Daneidra.

3 great grandsons - Riley, Xander, and Kynsaud. 1 great granddaughter - Makiyah.

Ms. Edith you were truly a special person with an awesome spirit. I remember when i first met you i was so afraid of you, You were Assertive, "Matter of Fact" and No Nonsense, little did i know then you just exuded with the aura of being a Strong Black Women. You looked out for me and my siblings whenever there was a need. You always shared your knowledge if it was asked for and even in times that it wasn't. You and your niece were my first hair clients and you encouraged me to pursue my talent. Thank you for all that you gave me Ms. Edith you are a jewel in my eye that i will forever treasure. May God keep You as you Rest in Heaven

My dear friend , my ride or die friend, my bingo , church friend. I miss you 😭 you so much. I can't stop these tears from flowing, but I know you're in a better place. God had healed all your body aches and pain. Our last conversation was when you were on the hospital doing fine. Before we hung up I told you remember I'm leaving on my cruise 🚢 and will be back in 7 days. I come back to hear you're leaving me. All I can say Lord why so much "pain" my Edith is gone . I know God makes no mistakes in what he does... you're gone way too soon. Thank you for many years of friendship, talks. cooking, guidance, and most of all your loving spirit. Fly high my friend and fatten up everybody in Heaven with your cooking...

Edith, my sister, my friend you always did things your way and look what you have done you have left us right out of the blue. The last time we talked, I never thought that I would be giving you up but only our God knows what is best. I love you and will miss you. Say hello to all the love ones you meet and pass on your way to get your robe because I know the Lord surely has one for you. Stand proud on the road of gold and wait for your mansion not made by man's hand. I will miss you sister and my hart is so happy you are out of so much pain. I can see your fingers pointing towards heavens doors. 😊😭🙏
