George, I will always remember you calling in the middle of the night because you couldn't sleep...I will always remember you making everyone laugh...you were always the party...and most of all your kindness to my brother Phillip coming to the rehabilitation center to cut his hair....until we meet in heaven...sending prayers, hugs to you and your family...Love Always JoAnn and Brian Brown

RIP Georgie ~ Thank you so much for just being the person you were to me. I know you had tons of friends but you always made time for everyone no matter what. We would be talking right about now. It was your time to leave this earth and even though it's painful you're in peace & that's all that matters, Forever in my heart ❤️ BELLA E.

One of my favorite memories of uncle George was always going with my dad (Carlos) to get a haircut sitting in the barber shop talking his ear off!!!! I even got lucky enough to get my hair done in his chair! ❤️ I absolutely adored him!!! He knew how to keep you entertained in that chair always talking about his weekend plans watching the cowboys and spending time with the family!
